1974 NESHONOC

West Salem High School

West Salem, Wisconsin

There are places I'll remember
All my life, though some have changed
Some forever, not for better
Some have gone and some remain
All these places had their moments
With lovers and friends I still recall
Some are dead and some are living
In my life I've loved them all.

John Lennon

Memories

To those who cry that nothing past is good
I say, "Come, take my hand, and follow me down the corridors of time."

Endless, back forever; here I find my life
My love.

While walking cobblestone streets.

Up, and down, and up again.

In these hands, my hands, I possess the power to bring the past back again.

And I weave it all together;

Memory by memory,

Strand upon strand,

Till the past is woven with the present.

And I live it all, again.

Linnea Ingold

Miler Janine Martin displays the willpower needed to run a mile.

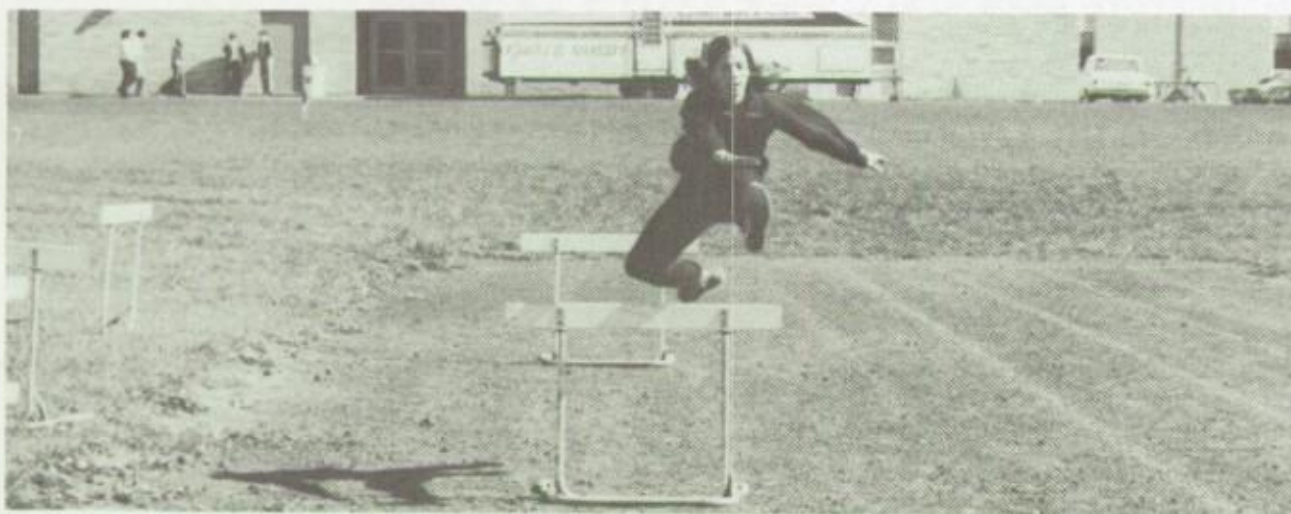

Donna Seeger struggles to gain the lead.

Leatta Gilbertson concentrates before her toss.

Underclassmen Spark Girls' Track Season

80 yard hurdler Sue Molitor finishes third at Regionals.

Coached by Miss Jane Simon and Mrs. Marjorie Jaspersen, fourteen girls competed in three meets before the Viroqua Regionals. There, Lynda Gorniak finished second in the long jump and Sue Molitor finished with a third in the eighty yard hurdles.

At the Annual Athletic Banquet in May, Lynda Gorniak received the Most Valuable member award of the '73 team.

Mary Ender approaches her throw.

Adept in the high jump, Marla Brauer attempts to clear the bar.

Linksters Fall Short of Coulee Crown

Jeff Reece chips out of trouble.

The 1972-73 Panther golf team continued its winning streak by placing second to G-E-T in the Coulee loop.

This year's action was paced by Jon Hetland and Bob Bartz who captured the third and fourth medalist honors in the conference.

With the return of only one letterman, there will be many spots open for eager underclassmen.

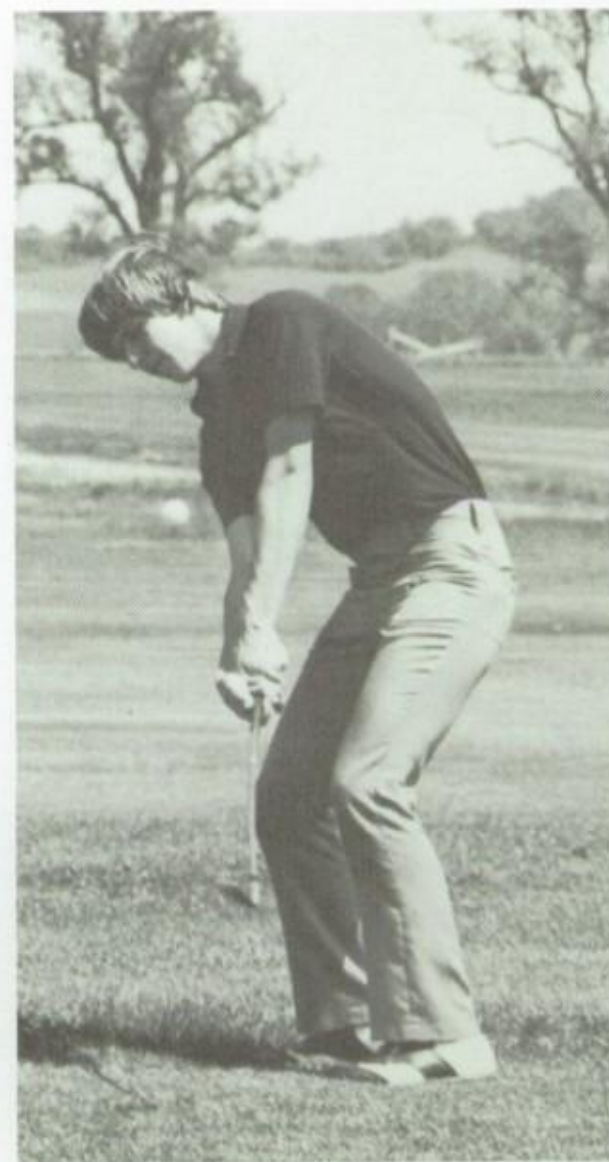

1972-73 Golf Team--Kneeling: Howard Manske, Keith Kleinke, Jon Hetland, Bob Bartz, Dave Onsrud, Jeff Reece. Standing: Coach William Smillie, Mark Riniker, Scott Friell, Scott Strauss, Rahn Pischke. Absent: Mark Johnson, Mark Pearsall, Bruce Wehrs.

Jon Hetland explodes an iron out of the woods.

Howard Manske blasts a wedge from the deep rough.

Scott Friell pops a short iron close to the pin.

Mr. Niedfeldt explains last minute instructions before taking the field.

Brian Shaw makes the put-out at first.

Diamond Men 2nd in Coulee Conference

Panthers poise for action as opponents warm up.

The 1973 baseball team captured second place in the conference with a 9-5 record.

Leading the Panthers from the mound, Mark Johnson posted a 6-1 season, while teammate Mark Rogers paced the hitting attack with a .420 average.

Several returning underclassmen will provide a strong foundation for 1974.

Mark Johnson and Tim McClintock discuss next inning's strategy.

Cindermen Grasp Second at State

Exhibiting good form, Kent Beebe lacerates the cinders.

The 1973 Panther thinclads captured a strong second place finish in state competition. They fell short of first by three points.

Steve Brauer led the field with two firsts in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Steve Black also snatched a first place finish in the discus with a record toss of over 165 feet.

Strong support from the juniors and sophomores will provide the '74 team with leadership.

Dave McClintock leaps over the bar with room to spare.

Blazing across the finish line, Dennis Kneifl gains team points.

1973 Varsity Thinclads--Front Row: Gary Osiecki, Dennis Kneifl, Larry Johnson, Lonny Meyer, Dave McClintock, Greg Craig, Dave Anderson, Mark Dahlen. Middle Row: Coach Wilbur Johnson, Kent Beebe, Dean Muenzenburger, Thorolf Sommerfeldt, Scott Bartlett, Dennis Isbell, Jim Ming, Coach Tim Knight. Back Row: Tim Hundt, Carl Schmidt, Jeff McClintock, Mark Dahl, Ron Martin, Steve Brauer. Absent: Steve Black.

The reserves prepare to move in.

Inconsistency Plagues Football Season

Cheerleaders Denise Kneifl, Marla Brauer, Teresa Hass, Leatta Gilbertson, and Sue Groth arouse the fans.

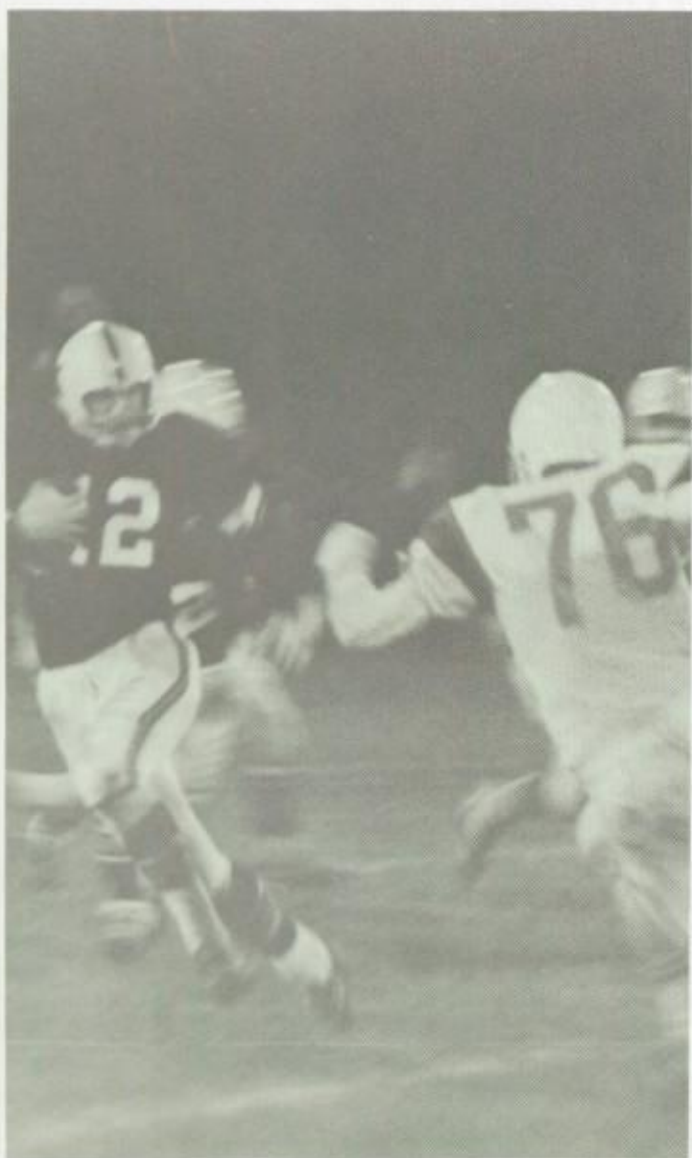

The 1973 Panther football team suffered through a long, disheartening season. A tough defensive unit instilled team spirit and kept alive the hopes of the squad.

Seniors Jon Hetland and Jim Ming led the way for the Panthers, both named to the 1973 All-Coulee Conference second team, at offensive center and defensive linebacker.

Several returning underclassmen will provide a strong foundation for the '74 Panther grid team.

Social Season

King Darrell Wuensch and Queen Miriam Nyseth greet their subjects along the parade route.

Homecoming week '73 had as its theme "Soap Operas". Skits, a pep rally, and a gigantic bonfire boosted school spirit on Thursday night. The junior class received the spirit award in addition to racking up first place on an ingenious skit. Rolling in with first place in float competition, the sophomores depicted the idea "Hill-topper Hospital".

Over two hundred seventh-five students and alumni attended the dance held after the game with "Innermost Feelings" providing the music.

F.F.A. -F.H.A. along with their advisors Mr. Dale Weber and Mrs. Roberta Severson, respectively, sponsored the 1773 Harvest Dance, "Yours until the day breaks". King Matt Servais and Queen Janice Gerke, chosen by members of F.F.A. -F.H.A., reigned over the evening's festivities. Haybales and cornshocks created an autumn backdrop for the music of "Flying Free".

Gymnasts Exhibit Originality, Poise in

rose Seeger, Rosie Volden. Third Row: Miss Waterhouse, Sue Molitor, Jayne Pralle, Teresa Hass, Marla Brauer, Leatta Gilbertson, Sue Groth, Marti Dahlen, Diane Molitor.

Cindi Severson develops self-confidence and balance through training on the beam.

Rosie Volden displays grace and poise in her floor exercise routine.

Competition

Optional competition expands vaulting skills.

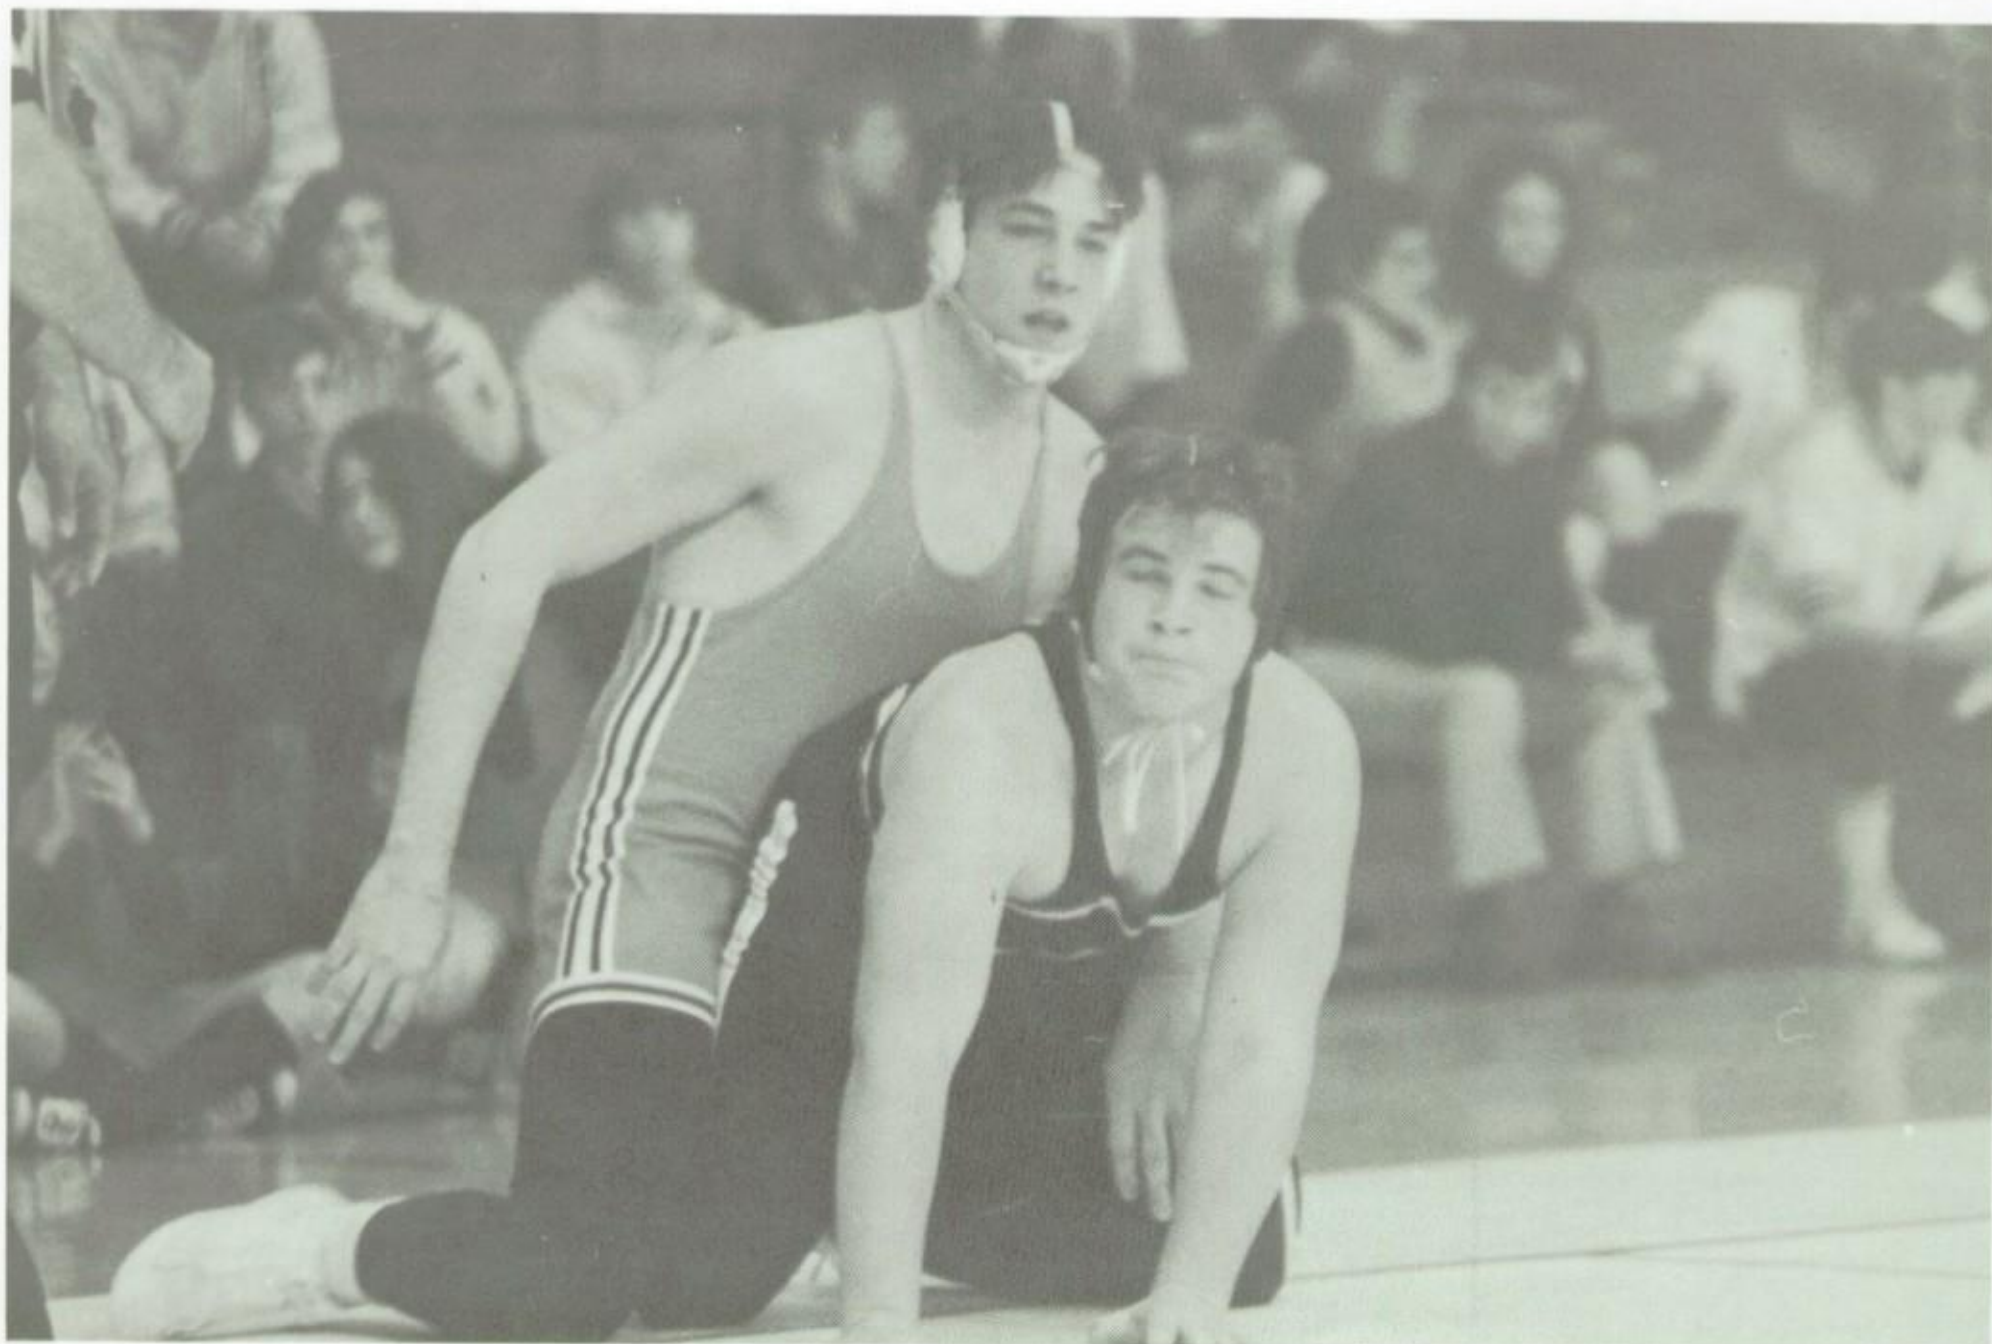

With Tami Ender as spotter, Sue Molitor attempts a handstand dismount.

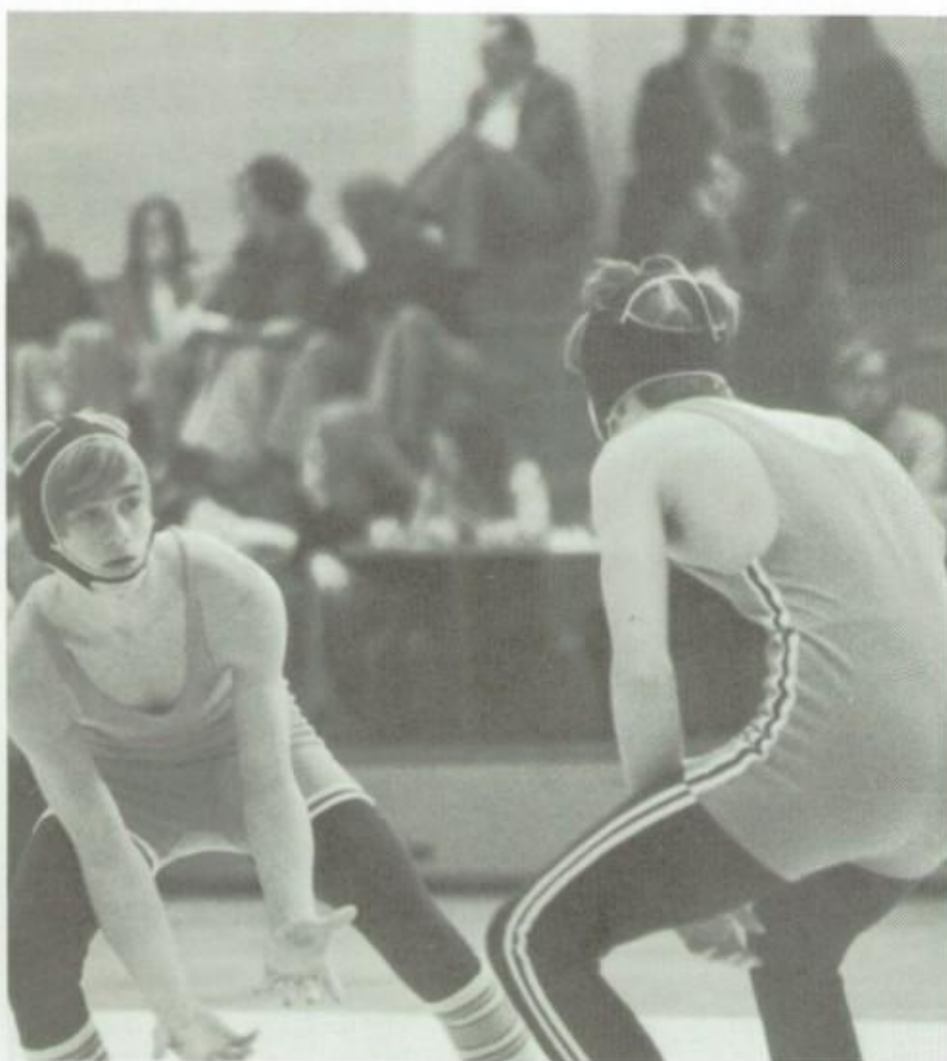

Creativity is expressed by Marla Brauer in a pose on the beam.

Strength and durability are needed for an L-support demonstrated by Linda Hass.

Using his weight to an advantage, Brad Monson rides his foe.

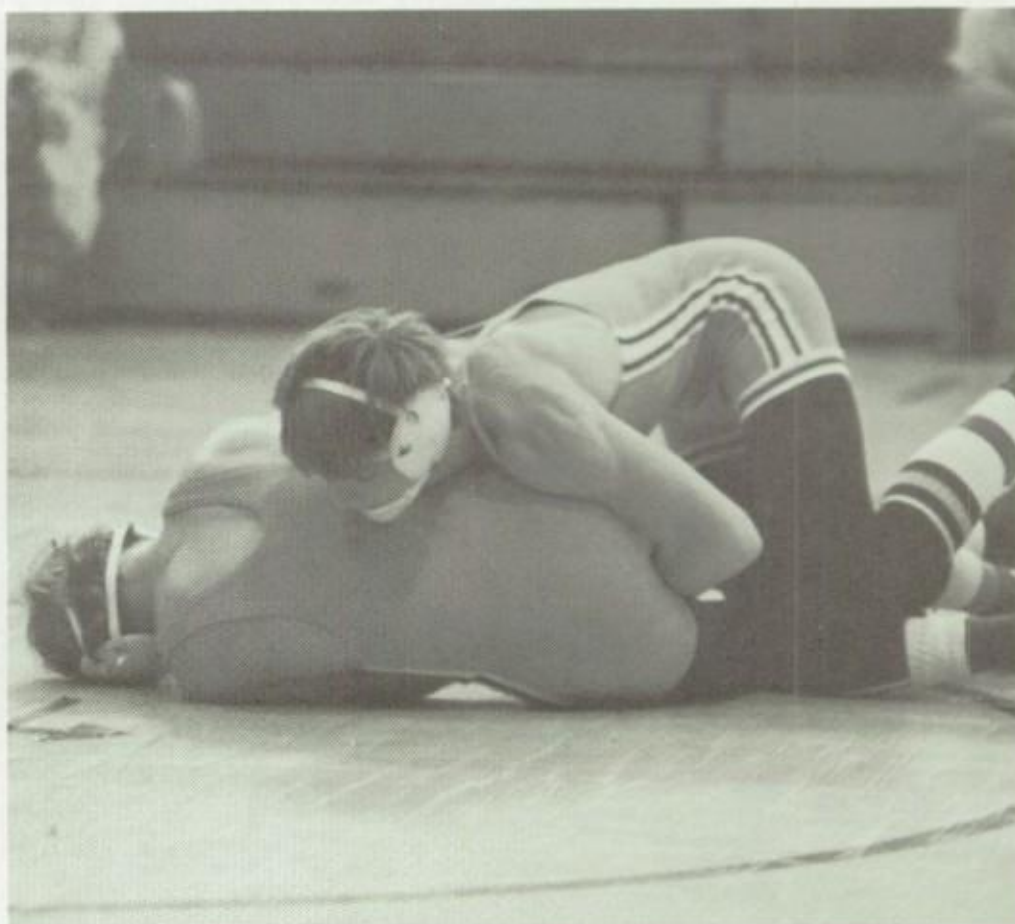

Randy Bina maneuvers his opponent for a takedown.

Coaches Gary Rattner and Ken Spraetz proudly display West Salem's first wrestling trophy.

Maintaining firm control, Doug Schomberg attempts a pin.

Grapplers Experience Unique Season

Garry Bahr "rides tough", as his opposition struggles for freedom.

The '74 grapplers, under the direction of head coach Ken Spraetz and assistant coach Gary Rattner, have completed a very successful season. West Salem captured first place at the Royall Invitational, and placed second at the Mustang and Kickapoo Invitationals. The team looked strong in all twelve weight classes.

Eight returning lettermen will form the building blocks for the '75 Panther wrestling team.

Wrestling cheerleaders Peggy Jeffers, Tami Ender, Lynda Gorniak, Rosie Volden promote school spirit.

Leaping high in the air, Ron Martin scores from the corner of the free throw line.

Panthers dominate action under the boards.

Crashing the lane, Mark Dahl gets a bucket.

Cashing in on a fast break, Jon Hetland scores two.

A sudden play excites the Panther bench.

Panthers Battle Coulee Foes

Mark Johnson makes a move on the baseline.

Mike Hanson towers over the defense for an easy score.

A lack of experience proved to be the biggest sore spot for the Panther cagers. Supplementing this weakness with determination, the Panthers molded one of the toughest defenses in the conference. A large group of underclassmen should provide the needed offensive spark for next year's campaign.

If you're ready
for this much fashion,

you're ready for
this much machine.

If your taste runs to couture . . . your needs run to a Touch & Sew* machine. With these unique Singer features:

Our exclusive push-button bobbin is a technical triumph. It rewinds right in the machine with a mere pinky-push. Banishes 18 boring steps. So you don't have to get all wound up each time your bobbin does.

And Singer makes the only bobbin that drops conveniently into the top of the machine. Right up front. No loose bobbin case to fumble with—it's already built-in.

Because your knits required a more gentle feed system, we designed one that won't snag or snarl. And it's ours exclusively.

We even created an overedge Flexi-Stitch* disc that combines stretch-stitch seaming with finishing in one step.

Discover a Touch & Sew machine. Because frankly, it's the only sewing machine that's as good as you are.

Pattern and fabric shown available at many Singer Sewing Centers.

Freshmen spirit floatin' by.

MY LIFE IS LIKE DUST:

memories blown away by winds of tomorrow--

sometimes stinging my eyes,
or slowing my stride when mixed with tears of despair.

Like a small child's playing in a sandbox,
we quickly leave dusty memories behind.

Today is yesterday:

Tomorrow is now!

So open your eyes!

The dust may sting,

but the winds are always shifting.

Peggy McAninch
